Re: Initiation of the Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Investigations of Chromium Trioxide from India and the Republic of Türkiye

Dear Chair Karpel:

In accordance with sections 702(d) and 732(d) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), the U.S. Department of Commerce has initiated the above-referenced less-than-fair-value and countervailing duty investigations. As required by sections 702(d)(1) and 732(d)(1) of the Act, you are hereby formally advised of these initiations. The bases for these initiations are summarized in the Federal Register notices that may be found in Enforcement and Compliance's Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System under the above-referenced case numbers.

You will be accorded full access to all non-privileged and non-proprietary information in our files. All privileged and business proprietary information in the files will be made available upon confirmation that the confidentiality of such information will be maintained, and that it will not be disclosed, either publicly or under administrative protective order, without the written consent of the Assistant Secretary for Enforcement and Compliance.

Sincerely,

12/30/2025

X
